The Full-Color Guide To Marvel Early Bronze Age Collectibles: From 1970 To 1973: Third Eye, Mego, F.O.O.M., And More (Full-Color Guide To Marvel Collectibles) (Volume 2)

Synopsis

THE FULL-COLOR GUIDE TO MARVEL EARLY BRONZE AGE COLLECTIBLES: FROM 1970 TO 1973: THIRD EYE, MEGO, F.O.O.M., AND MORE is here. Picking up where the Silver Age collectibles guide left off, this encyclopedic tome of Marvelmania covers all the toys, posters, fan club items, fanzines, clothing, and all other Marvel-related merchandise from the early 1970s. Hundreds of pictures are all presented in full-color with write-ups and descriptions that reflect years of research into these often obscure collectibles and the Marvel history behind them. Each Third Eye poster, puzzle, and greeting card is pictured with the source of its original art identified. All early Marvel Megos are pictured and cataloged, and tips are provided to assist collectors in determining authentic from reproduction Mego products from this era. All F.O.O.M. magazines from 1973 are indexed, and all of the club's products are pictured, and all Marvel-related fanzines of the early 1970s are featured and indexed as well. In short, this guide is the first and most complete compilation of early Bronze Age Marvel collectibles that has ever been created. Over a decade in the making, this guide aims to please even the most maniacal merry Marvel madmen out there. 'Nuff said!

Got the first volume on a Thurs, loved it so much I ordered the second volume, this one, right away and got it that Sunday. Won't be that quick to order the 3rd volume whenever that comes out. This has A LOT of padding. Way too much fanzine info. While they play up the inclusion of the Mego figures, they only talk about two of them, but use 10 pages to cover all the details....EACH. How thick in the next volume going to be if they spend 10 pages on the Thor figure, then the Thing figure, then the Green Goblin figure. As a Marvel fan, I don't need this much info of the smallest details of those dolls. And I'm guessing Mego fans already know all of this, Some of the reproductions of the posters are nice, good color. But for the price, no, not really worth it.

Pretty strong collection of early 1970s Marvel Merch in all its' splendor. A research book of this caliber deserved hardcover treatment, but Pages are high quality paper and reproductions. Suggested values are laughable on some items, most notably the Third Eye Posters which sell for extremely more than valued here. But if you loved Marvel Comics in the early half of the 70s, it's a must have pilgrim.

Loved it

Very enjoyable! Can't wait for next installment...
