Customer Reviews

Looking for a quick, easy gift? Or maybe something small to try a new technique? Eleanor Levie has collected projects from 15 designers that will give you some ideas. Different techniques include reverse applique from Linda Pool, circular couching from Carol Taylor, log cabin blocks from Marti Michell, crazy quilt patches and fantasy flowers from Yvonne Porcella, layered landscapes from Karen Eckmeier and a wool felt project from Elly. --The Professional Quilter, Spring 2008

Eleanor Levie has produced dozens of books and magazines as a needlework and crafts editor, with quilting as her specialty. She loves to quilt, to share new and wonderful ideas from the experts, and to inspire quilters to stretch their imaginations. She travels widely, presenting lectures and workshops for guilds and quilt shops.

The cover design is the one that attracted me. There aren't really enough other patterns that I like to have justified the purchase. Most crafters want to see all of the designs in a book before purchasing it; we don't really care about the index and intro that are normally included in the available "Look Inside" pages. might want to rethink which pages they allow potential buyer to review.

Many of these designs are so striking, and the rest look pleasant enough to give as gifts. I was expecting a lot less and was very pleasantly surprised.

Flip through this book and you will know this is definitely not your typical runner book. The skinny quilts are designed by a number of well-known quilt designers, and as a result, there is a wonderful variety of styles and techniques taught in this book. I've already made "By the Sea" by Karen Eckmeier. The instructions are clear, the photos are wonderful, and I LOVE my finished product. I have already purchased Skinny Quilts & table runners II, and I will definately be making more projects from these two books.

Great addition to my Tablerunner quilting book collection. Lots of great patterns.

I really enjoy a book that offers many options and this one delivers ! I love working with wool and there is a lovely tablerunner that uses gorgeous felted wool. Another very modern design that looks wonderful on the wall. The techniques are varied and can be used interchangeably. You won't be disappointed in the photography either. A lovely book with projects that can be completed quickly...my kind of book !

The beautiful designs and challenges in this book are worth the try.I am what I consider still a beginner (only 2 years at quilting).The one I choose to make is "By the Sea".I feel I learn more if I step out from the easy stuff and take a challenge.Lots of beautiful things in this book to make so, take the Challenge.....

I was looking for somewhat simpler projects. These are a bit beyond my skill level.

Bought this to replace my old one. Love the patterns.
