Vladimir Kush started formal art training in Russia at the age of seven and progressed to art institute in Moscow. Schooled in the classics and mathematics as well, he developed his Metaphorical Realism style from Surrealism after the Cold War. He exhibited in Europe, Asia and the U.S. during the 1990's. He has since opened galleries for his original artworks and editions in Maui, Las Vegas, Laguna Beach and New York.

A brilliant documentary of a brilliant artist! I saw his work in the KUSH gallery in Las Vegas, NV. at Christmas-2016. I perused his/this book in the gallery and decided to add it to my growing library ASAP. I was not disappointed! His writing adds an extensive narrative to his metaphorical artistic mysteries & fantasies. I have about half way to go - as his text demands re-reading & committal to memory. I indulge myself in depth and I am enriched. Go get yours!!!

All I can say is the art most illustriously envisioned by Vladimir Kush is pure fantastical enjoyment for one's eyes. You could come home from a busy day and just sit and be calmed by the warm, magical, imaginery, illustrious notions of each and every piece. You will find warm flows of the most majestic colours bounce off of each piece. A pure relaxation and most enjoyable feast for your eyes which is a form of entertainment matched by none.

Very good quality book and so beautifully illustrated. A powerful feeling when I reached the end of the book was that I want more and bigger pictures because I simply can't get enough of the imagination of Vladimir Kush which is a delight for the eye and soul.

Not quite what I expected with the photographs, but it's all right.

Beautiful reproductions but the cover was attached oddly. Perhaps it was intentional so that the book laid flat while viewing?? It was a gift and the recipient didn't mind so he kept it.

Great book, holds most of VK's work, I love it, I actually discovered his art in Laguna Beach, CA. His art just is amazing Pricey, but an amazing book. Every page is a work of art. Wish it were cheaper though!

I ordered it because I know him
