This is my first dive into the Mass Effect comic series and its bloody fantastic. They captured the vibe of the series very well as it feels like an actual in game experience. The art is fantastic, the writing is good and the stories deliver.

Good extra stories to read for people who have played the games and dlc. Not really for newcomers who don't already know the universe.

Interesting background to the Mass effect universe. Decent artwork and storyline. Much better than buying the graphic novels piece by piece and avoids spoilers for the games.

Great visuals and feels like a mass effect side mission. Very fun reads. Recommended for any fan of the series.

My son is happy it was here pretty quick.

It gave background story to the characters i care about in the games and Tali's story bringing on the feels

A great collection of Mass Effect comics. Commander Shepard is neither male nor female in this collection, it is left ambiguous; my game had FemShep for all of them. The art is good, and the stories are overall engaging. There are one or two very short ones which don't really contribute to anything. Looking forward to Volume 2!
