I am not a new Christian, yet this book has a lot of insight. I took a course that required this book as part of the study. This book helps one to understand the truths of the Bible. An interesting study for new Christians or seasoned believers.

First - I have to admit that I have not finished reading the whole book. I bought the book to go through with a new believer. I don't think the author did the same. For someone new to Christianity, there's a lot of "Christian-ese" in the beginning of the book. I asked my friend how much she understood what we were reading and she said, "I'm catching bits and pieces here and there." Needless to say, I'm looking for a new book.

I bought this book because I wanted a good introduction of the Christian faith. I wanted something that would be good to share with a new believer, and Max Anders produced exactly what I was looking for. Thirty Six chapters discussing important aspects of the Christian faith.

Very good book for the mature Christian and the new convert. Full of teaching we can all benefit and learn from. Bought one copy for myself and one for a new convert. Highly recommend this book!

Going through this with some friends who are new to the faith! Awesome resource.

As a new Christian, I enjoyed this book. It explained some things that I was embarrassed to ask or that my husband (a cradle Catholic) had forgot. I have a feeling that I will be referring to and using this book for years to come, even after my RCIA classes are over.

Having never read this, I was led to buy this as a gift for a "baby Christian" friend of mine who knew the Lord and was taught some things growing up but really hadn't grown much in her beliefs and wanted to understand more about this life of love that she is choosing to live. It is the perfect non-overbearing gift to enhance a new Christian's walk. Sometimes the bible is overwhelming...but this definitely helps transitions new believers to solid food. Highly recommended!

I have used this book many times over the years, when I led someone to the Lord I would give them a copy of Now That I Believe
