A fine read about an amazing man and his journey. Learned to work and learn from the Native Americans and made many successful trips for the Hudson Bay Company. A lot of knowledge can be gleamed from these pages folks.. buy it.

An excellent read! Easy to understand, compelling adventure, Hearne was resourceful and courageous. This was definitely the insight into a man who captured my imagination as a boy.

This is a must read for anyone that is interested in early North American exploration. The book is an account of a solo walking trip from Hudson Bay to the mouth of the Coppermine River in the years 1769 to 1772.

Overall a great read, a really good "there and back again" tale with lots of fascinating insights into the lifestyle and customs of the indigenous first nations people at a time when they were interacting with Europeans.
