Love Me Kiss Me And Hug Me (TL Manga)

Synopsis

Miyoko Miyoshi works as a janitor at a private school where all the rich families send their children. At this school there is one young man called Iwasaki who holds almost absolute control over the school and those who attend it. Everything is going smoothly for Miyoko until one day her precious flower bed is ruined and the one who did it was Iwasaki. She vows to not let Iwasaki get away with it and confronts him about it only to be told that she is "interesting" and given his purveyor badge. She's not sure what to make of this and only knows that it means she has caught his eye in some way. Is it inevitable that the clumsy, conceited young prince and the plain, uninteresting young janitor fall in love!?

Customer Reviews

I liked it I thought it was cute and playful. Also you got the whole story it doesn't leave you hanging but leaves enough room for a second book if the author wants.

The story was fast and to the point plus super romantic and erotic totally wish there were more volumes love love this book

I like this story and want to read more of this type of story. It good and like it that why.

It had a nice concept but went to fast. If it slowed down some and had some more details in between it would of been really good

. . . it can use a lot of character development. Maybe if the mangaka had been give the chance it would have been great.

It's a cute story. So if u want to find out why it's a cute story read it. Then u will know what I mean

I could not put it down I just continued reading it. I was surprise how good it was by how short it was.

I chose this because it was good and the author should make more like this XD :D :b Xb
