Kurzban's Immigration Law Sourcebook: A Comprehensive Outline And Reference Tool

The book met my expectations

Ira Kurzban has written the most complete primer on immigration. This book contains valuable information on asylum, family petitions, green cards, marriage cases, spousal visa, fiancee visa, criminal immigration cases, removal and deportation cases, 11th circuit federal appeal, board of immigration appeal cases, motion to reopen and reconsider as well as employment green cards, H-1B visas, L-1A visas, investor E-2 visas and student visas. This book is priceless. I am an immigration attorney in Jacksonville, FL and I routinely refer to this book to obtain the relevant immigration law and statutes. Lena Korial-Yonan, Esq. at [...].

Don't buy an out of date version of this book. The law on this changes constantly. You need the latest, usually comes out in the summerish of every year. You can get them through AILA bookstore if you don't see a current version here.
