Customer Reviews

It's amazing and incredible, but it's true as it can be, God loves and understands us all and that means you and me . . . His grace is all-sufficient for both the young and old, For the lonely and the timid, for the brash and for the bold. Hymns like "Amazing Grace" inspired poetry like these lines by Helen Steiner Rice, and carried her through every season, event, and milestone in life. The hymns, Helen's inspirational reflections on them, and background on how each of these hymns came to be will transport you too. From the 1920s to her death in 1981, Helen Steiner Rice was the unofficial poet laureate of Americans seeking hope and optimism. Her books have sold more than seven million copies. Virginia J. Ruehlmann of Cincinnati, Ohio, continues the legacy of her friend through the Helen Steiner Rice Foundation. She has compiled nearly fifty volumes of Mrs. Rice's inspirational verse and poetry.
