Lisa Peschel is an artist, writer, and Wiccan.

I find that this book is a really good read when you want more information..but I wouldn't necessarily recommend this as the only book you should have, if you could only have one. While it's a good introduction, I feel that there could have been a bit more content and in depth analysis of the rune meanings.

This book is okay. One thing I don't like about it is that she compares the runes to Tarot too much. They're not comparable.

I love, love, LOVE this book. It's got the perfect balance of relevant information as well as interesting facts pertaining to the subject matter. I love the fun and personal way it was written. I'm so tired of over-flourished "occult" books that fill the pages with anecdotes and unnecessary, long-winded trivia that at best is loosely related to the topic of the book. I love the appendices in the back, it's easy to use in a hurry. I definitely recommend, and will be looking up other books written by this author.

An excellent book on runes

This a very good starter book!

I searched for information regarding Runes that we NOT other people's personal opinions of reading Runes and this book keeps to the ancient understanding of Runes.

informational!

This book is so helpful! I've learned so much from it already and it really makes sense. The book not only explains the meaning behind the runes, but it also shows how to do several rune casts and how to read them. This book is full of great information and I'd recommend it to anyone whos trying to learn more about runes.
