Customer Reviews

Vibrant artwork. Entertaining story.

Kelly Sue is truly one of the greatest writers working in comics and Lopez's art is top notch. Love it.

I'm a long-time Captain Marvel fan and am glad to get some of the later ones I've missed.

Kelly Sue DeConnick, David Lopez and Lee Loughridge has put together a masterpiece, the story line, artwork and character development makes this series a great read. I love the fact that they bring in a Guardians of the Galaxy story line. I hope Marvel will keep it going with this series, also would like to see Rhodey aka War Machine team up with Carol in the future. I would love to see Carol Danvers in a Marvel movie along with Power Man, Iron Fist and Misty Knight these characters need to be on the big screen.

I'm somewhat of a fanboy and get everything "Carol Danvers", even the flops. While I still don't like the suit I'm getting used to it and when it boils down to it the only thing that matters is that Carol is still Marvel, Captain or otherwise and she's awesome! Carol is a fantastic stand alone character with a ton of power and this book reminds people of that or shows them what an individual she is outside of the Avengers. Like a large number of Carol Danvers fans I'm praying they make a movie for her starring Katee Salkhoff (Hey Disney! Pay her whatever she wants!!). Great artwork and story shows this book has endless possibilities and GOTG crossovers and hopefully more away from "earthcenterofthedamnuniverse" stories. More please!

I've been meaning to give Kelly Sue DeConnick's Captain Marvel a shot for a long time. Because, Kelly Sue DeConnick. And people went bananas over her work with Captain Marvel. The volume had its moments. I appreciate the diversity throughout. The story was interesting enough. If the next two volumes fell into my lap I would totally read them. What I'm saying is, I didn't love it enough to spend more money on it.

I wanted to get into some of the Marvel superheroes and she seemed cool. There isn't really anything thing gritty and crazy but I think that's good. It's just a simple, fun, exciting adventure with some awesome cameo's from other heroes as well. I didn't know much about her going into this but this is a really cool book and great story for new readers.

I really enjoyed this story. It was fun to see a super hero in space. But that was a little different. If you like Guardians of the Galaxy then you will really have fun with this story. Captain Marvel is a strong brave hero who has to face obstacles in a world she doesn't know and deals with a culture she doesn't understand and it turns into something bigger than she understood.
