Luke Nguyen's Street Food Asia: Saigon, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur, Jakarta

Synopsis

Join Luke Nguyen on his latest adventure through the bustling and fragrant backstreets of Asia. Through Saigon and Jakarta, to Bangkok and Kuala Lumpur, Nguyen uncovers the hidden locations and secret eats of four very different cities and their street food cultures. Nguyen is in his element as the 'Street Food King', eating and exploring his way through traditional noodle soups and sweet sticky meats, to more adventurous dishes like Stir-fried Embryo Egg with Tamarind and Duck and Banana Blossom Salad. Venturing out at dawn and late into the night to discover street vendors, stallholders and roaming food carts, Nguyen captures the energy of each place at their busiest times of the day. Vibrant local personalities, colorful photographs and stories about the most unique dishes lead us through one of the world's richest and most fascinating food traditions.

LUKE NGUYEN is one of Australia's best-loved chefs. He is the owner of acclaimed Red Lantern and Fat Noodle restaurants, and is a regular presenter with shows that have taken him all over the world. He runs a cooking school in Saigon, and also a hospitality program for disadvantaged youth. He is also a judge on MasterChef Vietnam (watched by 20 million people!)

This cookbook is wonderful. We have already made several of the recipes and they turned out perfect. Recipes are easy to follow. Just love it

Love the pictures and the recipes in the book, but I also wish there were far more recipes

Great book, filled with all the recipes to try at home all the great food i've been eating for the last 2 months while traveling in Southeast Asia. Great photography, clear design.

I have all his books there great

There are not all the recipes in the book. He talks about a lot of them with pictures, but there are only some recipes. The recipes that I was most interested in, he did not include actual recipes.
