Customer Reviews

the directions and illustrations are easy to follow and are a great reference. thank you. I especially like that you gave different block sizes. I might add that colored backgrounds are a nice way to mix it up instead of always using muslin. I'm making a purple background for my daughter in law great refrence, My grandma made one of these and I am so excited that i can now learn how to make them too

although this was not what I had expected I still learned from it- John has ironed out some of the 'kinks' to making Cathedral Window blocks- in ways i had never heard of before- and they work

Instructions are perfect. I easily followed right along. I used muslin for the background and scraps of fabric from my mother's old clothes for the wondows. It turned out BEAUTIFUL.

Everything I needed to know about cathedral windows....

I will continue to read and try to figure it out. Drawings weren't that helpful to me. Will take to a friend for help in understanding it.
