Customer Reviews

What a great way to spend quality & fun time with my granddaughter - she on the violin & me on piano! She doesn't even realize she's practicing!!

very good.

I think that eventually we will be able to use this more, but need to find a book that both my beginning piano player and beginning violinist can dive right into. This one was a little over my pianists head.

Almost all of these songs are familiar. My son and I played Ode to Joy perfectly the first time through - so easily arranged and yet they sound above a beginner level. Easy, fun, beautiful songs.

After not touching the violin for 40 years, I am now teaching an 11 year old. This level of music was just perfect for him.

Perfect for the skill level of the people involved. Thanks so much.

I bought this so that I could play the piano with my daughter, who is a year into learning the violin. I have a few years of piano instruction from childhood. I found the leveling perfect, with the violin parts ranging from very easy (first half of Canon in D, and Greensleeves) to more challenging (Hall of the Mountain King). All of the songs are wonderfully recognizable for children. The piano parts were all easy but enjoyable to play.
