Customer Reviews

With his debut series, "Attack on Titan," Hajime Isayama has enjoyed a meteoric rise from unknown to one of Japan's top comics artists.

Unfortunately the book arrived bent. This must have been like it before it was placed in the envelope because the envelope was ok and the other book was ok. Not cool.

My son said that this book had a great story line. It was less action-packed in the beginning but was covered up by secrets being revealed and great backstories. When it got to the end it got really interesting and the battles were great. He loved this book!

Lots of interesting mystery coupled with complex and detailed characters. As always, a nice slow building tension... that cliffhanger though.

Love that I was able to get the book and one of the OVA episodes. It's not in English but it has English subtitles.

I'm loving where this series is going, and I can't wait to see what happens next. Hurry up and get here!

My grandson loves this series

My 14yo son has been reading this series for the past 3 years. He is always happy when a new book comes out.

Furthered the plot & filled backstory, but was mostly setup for the next volume.
