My summer is gonna be delicious!! And healthy !!! This book is so fun and useful and chock full of easy to make ice pops that contain only real food so I can feel great about a summery ice treat. Fun photos and writing too. Makes the perfect gift. Mothers' Day coming up? Fathers' Day? A warm weather birthday!

You MUST try the Caramelized Pineapple pop. It's worth getting the book for that recipe alone. I can't describe how delicious it is, and perfect for a spring BBQ. So many innovative recipes, and unlike a lot of specialized cookbooks, for the most part the ingredients are simple and easy to find. I'll be trying them out all summer!

Besides being incredibly beautiful, Glow Pops is full of easy yet interesting recipes. Liz is so thoughtful in outlining the benefits of ingredients, assembling both unusual and familiar flavor combinations, and providing great alternatives if you don't own a popsicle maker (I sadly don't). I love this book so much, I plan on giving it to my friends with summer birthdays!

Pops aren't just for kids anymore. The whole family can enjoy these delicious treats. They are healthy yet tasty. The flavor combinations are unique and delicious, and they are very easy to make. Our favorites include Lavender/Blueberry, Cold Brew Mocha and Matcha Latte. The recipes are easy to follow and the Getting Started part of the book does a great job of explaining the various ingredients and their health benefits. The book is beautifully laid out and the photographs are scrumptious. I highly recommend Glow Pops for those who want a guilt free alternative to the ubiquitous sugar laden snacks that are often the only choice out there in stores.

Loving this book and all the recipes! Think you could never eat that many popsicles? Think again. This book has popsicles for every mood, craving and occasion. Bloody Mary popsicles? Best idea for brunch to impress all of your friends. All the recipes are super easy and give tons of advice of how to do it if you're a popsicle novice. Perfect for summer, great for gifts!

Absolutely lovely recipes for grown ups. So far I've made caramelised pineapple lollies and strawberry rose lassi lollies. Both provided continuous gratification during the eating process
