Customer Reviews

A short but sweet story about the relationship between cute, hard-working little Yudai, and Sanjo, who works as a host. The characters were easy to like, and I wish there were more stories with mildly masculine Seme like Sanjo (rather than the ice-cold hyper-masculine types featured in most I've seen). I'm just not sure Sanjo's early actions fit his character. Still, it had a cute, happy ending, and was an enjoyable way to pass some time, so I'm happy :)

Poor character development and a cliche story. It's fairly simple. It's a little like the story where one kid forgets another, and then meet years later.

It was only $2 So I guess you get what you pay for. This story could have been more engaging, they completely rushed things. I felt no connection to shy of the characters.

Good style but had very little story wise; didn't have much of a plot, disappointed about that. At least it was only $2 so not that expensive
