George S. Cuhaj has been on the editorial staff of the Standard Catalog of World Coins and the Standard Catalog of World Paper Money for 20 years. He is lead editor for the on-line product NumisMaster, cataloging new issues, as well as Canadian Coin Digest and the Standard Catalog of United States Paper Money, among others. He was formerly cataloger for the American Numismatic

Society and Stack's Rare Coins, both of New York City. Thomas Michael holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and a Master of Arts degree in economics and has maintained the world coin values in all Krause Publications' world coin references for over 25 years. His interest in Numismatics stretches back to childhood and has lead him to be a part of the production of more than 100 price guides, many of them award winning.

Missing many countries, to say nothing of only posting to 2012 in most major countries; arranged badly (not really by date, or by type, or by grouping. Numbering is right but posted out of order (not by number or date). In Thailand, almost impossible to find coins--not in any sequencing at all! I am not sure anyone is editing this any more. It used to be the standard for all cataloging, but now is a nightmare to wade through, and unfortunately there is little alternative!

The book it's OK, but I found many mistakes in it! For example, there are no list for coins from Turks & Caicos, Tuvalu neither TurkmenistÃ¡n; there are coins no listed there although in the previous edition they were, and another errors.

Massive collection of data; a real labor of love. Must-have information, now in very modern form!

I already own the earlier editions from 1600, 1700, 1800, & 1900. They are all great reference guides.

Basically new condition - THANKS!!

I liked it better than the catalog books for portability

It is as advertised. A complete world coin reference book based on RS Yeoman book.

All Good
