Just what I expected.

The Symphony in Three Movements is one of Stravinsky's finest orchestral scores. His use of the orchestra and musical ideas inside of a classical aesthetic combine for a riveting piece. The score reveals the master at the height of his composition and orchestration talents and is well worth the study. If you're looking for the perfect complement to the techniques in the ballet scores or to figure out how to extend your own skills, Symphony in Three Movements is a good place to look.
