Facts listed more than once. Facts that are not true, such as she says zebras are white with black stripes, when they are black with white stripes. Apparently not edited. Sometimes one fact is listed and another one completely different subject follows immediately without the usual separation. Didn't enjoy it for these and other reason.

Many of the "facts were repeated, sometimes just a couple pages later. It is not "huge!" Altogether, a below average book.

Some of the lines don't line up which was really confusing. I was hoping there would be an explanation but there wasn't one.

Sentence fragments that are gibberish. The book looks as if it was a cut and past job gone terribly wrong.

Arrived as expected given as a gift
