Customer Reviews

The author has so many opportunities to sever the relationship from this demonic narcissistShe also needs therapy as well damn!!!!!!All she had to do was change her number and the fool wouldn't be able to get to herThis woman take all that foolishness because she liked to wined and dine and sleep in luxe hotels and that's what this Sami fella knew. I got too tired to get to the end ! She frustrated me with her desperate behavior just to have a man .

This book did make me mad. It made me mad as a mother to see this woman sacrifice her son for a trip. She was with a man that tried to abort their child. He then dangled him out of a window. He put cigarette burns on him etc. After all this and more she let him stay with her. She took vacations with him. She supposedly could not get a job but accepted thousands of dollars of calls from his family. She thrived on the drama sacrificing her son's welfare. The child should have been taken away from all of them.

This was really a horrible true story! It angered me so much as how these men and this country allowed women to be treated unmerciful, I just wanted to go and kill all these ignorant men. But then on the other hand I think this woman could have gotten out sooner and never put herself in this situation as she did again and again! I doubt I will read another one of these stories, it's just too upsetting.

I read the first book and enjoyed it. I was disappointed in the second book as it was all over the place and the grammar was horrendous. I can't believe this was written by the same person. I would not recommend this book. I would however recommend the first volume in this series.

this is a poorly done translation into English. It needs to be re-read and fixed by a native English speaker. The story itself is important and interesting but very poor English makes it almost unreadable.

I basically could not read the whole thing. It was poorly edited and was very hard to understand!!

Poor translation or editing.No personal responsibility taken by the author for the poor choices.The book is full of self pity and revenge.I was very disappointed.

Found the book difficult to read due to poor translation. The story line is shallow .I would not recommend this book.
