Customer Reviews

The only negative thing about this book is that I wish it had more Kate Greenaway designs as cross stitch projects. But the designs included are beautiful and lend themselves to many diverse cross stitch projects, from framed art work to pillows, baby blankets, table cloths and the author even added the steps to make a child's skirt. The cross stitch designs, themselves, are lovely renditions of Kate Greenaway's artwork.

I really didn't know what to expect since the book was used. The book was in great shape and I shall enjoy doing many of the cross stitch patterns.

They are very Victorian and really sweet. They add a nice touch to any project or just for household items you want to dress up.

nice for cross stitch

Bought this sight unseen because I'm a fan of some of the author's other work. Regretted the cost even second-hand, because the designs are bland, blurry, and not much like Kate Greenaway's style.
