Customer Reviews

One of the better books I've seen. Great pictures and a large variety of fishing products and history. About as close as you will get without having all of the actual vintage catalogs.

Looks like he wrote about the one he collected. Missing a LOT of informatiopn. I sent it back Book was in very nice condition and a very informative book!

but for identification not so much. the book touches a little on everything. you know how many montgauge rod are out there! this book has info on one, the sunbeam.

A great book on fishing collectibles-lots of pictures and information for anyone interested in fishing collectibles or to see how much your existing items are worth.

Excellent reference book.

use it all the time for cost reference
