The Beswick Collectors Price Guide, 5th Edition (Beswick Price Guide)

Synopsis

The superb quality and beautiful design of Beswick figurines has always brought about a great demand in the collectibles market, and this guide to the popular collectibles will be just as sought after! Author Harvey May presents his research of the company's history and founders, designers of the pieces, and other employees, and has also included a section with tips on collecting Beswick and valuing discontinued pieces in this unique guide. Over 2,500 listings include model number and name, height, current value in British Pounds and U.S. Dollars, and production period. Listings cover all types of Beswick figurines, from birds, fish, butterflies and cats to characters from film and literature, and many, many more ? including special commissions. 80 full-color photos provide spectacular detail of the most rare and desirable Beswick pieces and series, including Beatrix Potter figurines, Disney characters, and the Pig Prom series.

Customer Reviews

Excellent reference book with interesting easy to read history of author etc. Recommended excellent book for me as a collector especially as other than prices/model detail, it has history of Beswick, owners of the business, the paintresses, and other people involved. well worth having.

This is a very well put together and compact book which provides a comprehensive listing of a variety of Beswick pieces and their values. If you know the name of the piece you are trying to find, this book is useful. However, it does not photographically catalogue all pieces, which makes it difficult to look up a piece if you aren't certain what it is.

Only giving 4 stars because I bought book used, and needed information for just one item. Very comprehensive for all figurines.
